Welcome Message

Professor Piyamitr Sritara, M.D.
Dean

Dear Distinguished Guests and Colleagues,

This has been a magnificent year for Ramathibodi Hospital as we entered the 6th decade of service as one of Thailand's leading medical schools and an excellent medical center in Asia Pacific. Moreover, this year comes a great opportunity for us to share with the global community our lessons learned and academic progressions in providing integrated medical services to our population.

As Dean, it is my pleasure to welcome all of you to Ramathibodi International Academic Conference 2016, Scale the Height of Academic Strength, in Bangkok. The conference will consist of wide variety of scientific advancements in major diseases, with specific focus on contemporary cancer treatment, geriatric medicine, and pediatric care. Delegates will experience multidisciplinary approaches to challenging cancers from key opinion clinicians, managements of emerging infectious diseases such as dengue and Hepatitis C, updates on vaccines, and discussions on gene therapy. Holistic care for aging population and antiaging medicine will as well receive substantial spotlights at the conference.

With our commitment as a center of excellence, Ramathibodi Hospital seeks to raise the academic strength to the fullest. On this special occasion, we expect to receive over a thousand of participants and various keynote speakers from all over the world. There will be several Thailand-focused sessions along with global experience forums with prominent speakers from the United States, Europe and Asia, particularly ASEAN countries. Delegates can also join the Ramathibodi surgical and nursing forums held in conjunction with the RIAC 2016. I believe the conference will serve as a good platform for you to exchange your views with international audiences and expand your collaborative network of medical and public health professionals. Externs and medical students are especially encouraged to participate in our capacity building sessions and tutorial courses that will bring about fruitful technical experiences.

The conference will be held during September 7- 9, 2016, at Centara Grand and Bangkok Convention Centre at Centralworld, right in Bangkok's prime area. Along with academic enhancement, I do hope you enjoy the charm of Bangkok and experience extraordinary Thai culture. May I, again, invite you to the 2016 Ramathibodi International Academic Conference and hope that you will benefit immediately both academically and socially from this fruitful event.

Welcome to Bangkok,
Professor Piyamitr Sritara, M.D.
